In the remaining records of Stafford is a suit made 1690 by a white servant endeavoring to obtain his freedom. He states he was sold to Thos. Howard, died "judicemt to Mr Rice Hooe" (which means Hooe had over his master's widow) + had servt 6 yrs, making it all 1684 when he was sold. In the same C. C. in 1691 is a suit agt. Rice Hooe who man many Marey widow. In a deed in Stafford 1701 is mention of a mill on Gcequian built by the father of Mr. Rice Hooe, then Mrs. The Rice Hooe by the testt was probably the father of the first & the name in Stafford though there is no positive proof. See May 1b 427-429. XII-319
